Billing

The exact number of pages in an article cannot be confirmed until shortly before printing. All mandatory excess page charges must be paid prior to scheduling (Since this is an estimate, adjustments +/- will be made to the final invoice you will receive). If you have agreed to pay charges, you will be billed for the actual pages, alterations, or other changes incurred in handling your paper.

Reprints are not included in the page charges. To order reprints, please use the form that accompanies the galley proofs. Please note color charges are in addition to page charges. If your paper has color figures, please complete the accompanying color charge form.
